

Expert conclusion on the educational program 7M05111 «Biology»

The presented educational program was developed by specialists of Pavlodar Pedagogical University, formed on the basis of a competence-based approach and is aimed at training masters of natural Sciences in the educational program "Biology" (scientific and pedagogical direction) in accordance with the 7th qualification level of the National Qualifications Framework

The main consumers of the educational program are students, educational organizations of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

The educational program contains all the necessary sections, according to the requirements. The goals and objectives of the program are aimed at developing the necessary professional competencies and obtaining the planned results. The structure of the educational program presents the characteristics of the modules and the matrix of correlation of learning outcomes with the formed competencies. The summary table shows the volume of loans disbursed by module. The program also describes the strategies and methods of training aimed at the formation of professional competencies.

The program also includes teaching, research and production practice throughout the entire period of study, which will allow undergraduates to master practice-oriented knowledge and skills in the subject area, planning and organizing educational and pedagogical activities.

The educational program fully meets the requirements of professional standards in the field of personnel training of the 7th qualification level of the National Qualifications Framework.

In the educational program 7M05111 "Biology", the volume of theoretical training allows you to provide a level that meets the requirements of training, through the introduction of a competency-based approach, the use of active educational technologies, and the involvement of employers in the educational process.

The educational program has sufficient personnel, educational and methodological, information and material and technical support necessary for the training of highly qualified specialists.

Based on the analysis of the educational program for the preparation of masters 7M05111 "Biology", we can conclude that this program opens up wide opportunities for the training of highly qualified specialists in the field of biology.

PhD, Associate Professor,
Head of the Department of Biology and Ecology
Toraigyrov University

A. Kalieva