

Review of the educational program

6B01110-Pedagogy and Psychology

Educational program level: Bachelor's degree

The educational program 6B01110-Pedagogy and Psychology of Higher education is developed in accordance with the Standard Curriculum of the specialty, the classifier of specialties of higher education (bachelor's degree), the professional standard of the teacher, the Dublin descriptors, consistent with the European Qualification Framework.

The educational program includes the objectives of studying modules in the cycles of general education and basic disciplines. The objectives of the study of modules in the cycles of the profile disciplines are reduced to the formation of the competitiveness of graduates in the labor market for the fastest possible employment in the specialty and professional growth, the choice of individual programs in the field of education and professional competence, which includes the formation of skills and organization of scientific and pedagogical research, psychological and pedagogical research, psychological and pedagogical diagnostics. The qualification characteristics of the graduate of the educational program in various fields of professional activity, typical tasks of professional activity are given.

The competencies are described in great detail: key, professional, special and personal. Annotations of the general education and basic disciplines studied are given, the knowledge of which will allow future specialists teachers-psychologists to work in various educational institutions, such as kindergartens, schools with different training programs, colleges; in medical institutions: polyclinics, hospitals, drug treatment, crisis, rehabilitation centers; in production, etc.

Director of secondary school №30 in Pavlodar

Tekzhanova A.T.