REVIEW

for the educational program of higher professional education, in the direction of training "Education" "6B01610 - History" of Pavlodar Pedagogical University named after A. Margulan (entry year 2023)

The educational program "6B01610 History" is aimed at preparing bachelors with a degree in history teacher. The program is being implemented at the Pavlodar Pedagogical University named after A. Margulan, the Higher School of Humanities, and the educational program "History". I think this innovative educational program will be relevant and in demand in the Republic of Kazakhstan.

The educational program outlines the scope, purpose, main tasks and characteristics of the graduate of the educational program.

An important place is occupied by the interactivity of students, the development of their information, communication, and professional competencies. In the future, graduates of the program will be able to continue their studies in the master's program in the specialty "History" in doctoral studies. The goal of the program is specific and correct, achievable, measurable and verifiable.

The educational program under review has a modular structure. The curriculum is presented in the form of compulsory and elective modules of the main topics of the program, their duration, indicating their results. The content part of the modular educational program "6B01610 - History" fully reveals teaching strategies and methods, monitoring and evaluation of learning outcomes. The learning results are justified and directly related to the competencies necessary for a future specialist. The educational program "6B01610-History" was prepared at a high level, taking into account trends in the education system and can be used in the training of historians. By implementing this modular educational program "6B01610-History", its developers will achieve high results in educational activities.
