International Scientific and Practical Conference «Actual problems of natural science knowledge», dedicated to the 90th anniversary of the opening of the natural monument «Goose Flight»

28th November, 2018

Dear colleagues!

We invite you to take part in International Scientific and Practical Conference “Actual problems of natural science knowledge”, dedicated to the 90th anniversary of the opening of the natural monument “Goose Flight”.

PSPU scientists pay great attention to the study and preservation of the natural, historical and cultural heritage of the region. It is one of the most important goals not only in Kazakhstan, and their solution directly depends on the study of the system of using natural heritage sites by modern society.

Scientists and teachers of higher and secondary specialized educational institutions, museum staff, local historians, students, undergraduates, doctoral students, postgraduates, and scientists, teachers of secondary and additional education are invited to the conference.

The purpose of the conference: to consolidate the efforts of Kazakhstani and foreign scientists in discussion of actual problems of natural science research; theoretical and methodological, psychological and pedagogical aspects of the development of natural science education, research questions in the study of the objects of natural, historical and cultural heritage; using the potential of museums and local historical data in teaching and searching for new opportunities for patriotic and civic education in the context of the state program «Rukhani zhangyru».

The conference is dedicated to the natural monument “Goose Flight”, which is one of the largest and widely known locations in Eurasia of fossil animals of hipparion fauna, which was opened in 1928. As a result of many years of research, experts from Kazakhstan, Russia and other countries from this location identified about 60 species vertebrates of hipparion fauna (antelopes, gazelles, mastodons, saber-toothed cats, hyenas, hipparions, giraffes, etc.). The conference proposes a joint effort of scientists and public in the development of new approaches and activities for the study and preservation of heritage.

The official languages of the conference are Kazakh, Russian and English.

The conference is expected to be attended by representatives of foreign and Kazakhstani universities and research institutes.

Participation in the conference is possible in the following forms: a presentation with a report in plenary meeting, a report in the framework of a meeting of one or several sections, correspondence participation.
